

PROCLAMATION

WHEREAS, 14 May 1967 is the twenty-fifth anniversary of the Women's Army Corps and many young women of South Dakota are playing a significant part in our national security effort in helping build a powerful defense establishment to keep the peace and deter any possible attack by aggressors, and;

WHEREAS, although hundreds of our young women have heretofore volunteered and are now volunteering their services to the Women's Army Corps, there still exists an acute shortage of volunteers to fill vacancies created by the demands made on our Armed Forces by continuing developments and the complex age in which we live, and;

WHEREAS, in order to acquaint the people of South Dakota with the need for women and the many opportunities offered by our Women's Army Corps, and to acquaint our citizens with the fact that without these voluntary enlistments the efficiency of our Army would be impaired;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, NILS A. BOE, Governor of the State of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim the month of May, 1967, as--

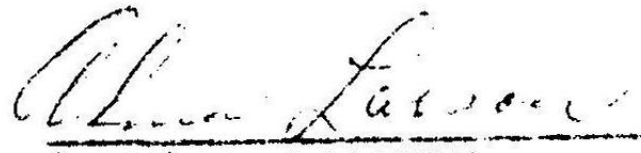

WOMEN'S ARMY CORPS MONTH

In South Dakota, and urge all our citizens, especially our young women who are eligible for military service, to pay tribute to the indispensable role our women are playing in the military phase of our national life and to the many splendid enlistment opportunities that are being offered by the Women's Army Corps this year.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and affixed the Great Seal of the State of South Dakota, in Pierre, the Capital City, this 25 day of April, in the Year of our Lord, Nineteen Hundred and Sixty-seven.
